Having strength and great ancestors is no good if there is no devotion to Lord Rama. Only the devotion to Lord Rama can lead to true prosperity.

Can the crow and the fish get the benefit of a holy bath? Will the standing of the crane with closed eyes equal to meditation?

Can a goat eating leaf be deemed as fasting for god? Can several glowing fireflies equal to the radiance of sun and moon?

If someone lives in a cave will it be same as the life of a rishi? Can the monkey's life in forest be same as a sage who gives up everything?

Only the true bhakti towards Lord Rama who blesses Saint Tyagaraja is the real strength and wealth

O Lord Rama! You are the husband of Goddess Sita. Aren't we your faithful devotees?
Please come and bless us with your love!

Please come with your sparkling clothes and your beautiful gold jewelry. You will always take care of all the wishes of your devotees.

Please come as we will never forget your divine powers!

Please come with the beautiful shining bow in your hand. You are always happy!

Please come with a radiant smile on your face! Please always take care of me with affection!

Please come as you are always very happy! I pray and bow to you O Lord!

Please come O Rama! You are everywhere and do not have a beginning or end! I have become your most faithful servant and devotee!

Please come O Rama! You are always very calm and came to take care of your devotee Saint Tyagaraja!
